

COMPANY PROFILE

Rani Food Industries Limited is a fast-growing food manufacturing company in Bangladesh, specializing in authentic potato chips, cookies, and biscuits made with a strong focus on quality, taste, and hygiene. Established in 2012, the company has steadily built a reputation for delivering appetizing and reliable food products that appeal to consumers across all age groups.

Rani Food Industries Limited emphasizes pure taste and uncompromising quality in every product it manufactures. The company has recently expanded its brand portfolio with the launch of two new brands—GoldMark and Ringo—both designed to meet diverse consumer preferences. GoldMark represents premium-quality snacks and bakery products, while Ringo has quickly gained popularity for its crunchy, flavorful potato chips and snack items.

Rani Food Industries Limited maintains one of the largest and most efficient distribution networks in the country. With approximately 2,000 sales associates covering all 64 districts of Bangladesh, the company's products are available in more than 500,000 retail outlets nationwide, ensuring strong market penetration and accessibility.

The brand is further strengthened by its association with national cricket icon Mushfiqur Rahim, who serves as the brand ambassador, reinforcing trust, credibility, and mass appeal. Driven by innovation, strong supply chain management, and a customer-centric approach, Rani Food Industries Limited continues to grow as a reliable name in Bangladesh's food industry, with ambitions to expand beyond national borders.

MISSION

Mission

Rani Food Industries Limited envisions becoming one of the leading food manufacturing companies in Bangladesh while earning strong global recognition for quality and taste. The company aims to set industry benchmarks by consistently delivering superior, safe, and innovative food products that reflect authentic flavor and modern consumer preferences. By strengthening brand trust, expanding market reach, and adopting advanced manufacturing practices, Rani Food Industries Limited seeks to represent Bangladesh on the global food map. The vision also includes sustainable growth, ethical business practices, and long term value creation for customers, employees, business partners, and the communities it serves.
